Description

The game invites each player to question one's relationship to the other, both identical and different, about one's tendencies to lock himself/herself up in a real or supposed group of belonging. This game allows to: make young people aware of all forms of discrimination and mockery; become aware of their perceptions of others and their prejudices in order to be able to think about them critically and, if necessary, correct them; understand that stereotypes can be dangerous and reductive; develop their critical thinking in order to avoid confusion.
